

THE BROWN SNAKE

By Henry Champion

Jaxon, Henry and Mikey were in Melbourne.

Mikey was playing in a footy game. Henry was watching the game. Jaxon was drinking some fizzy.

Suddenly, Mikey fell over, because he tried to tackle someone, but the player was too fast. Mikey broke his leg and he screamed. It hurt.

All of a sudden, the people at the footy game heard ambulance sirens. While they were waiting for the ambulance to come, a snake crawled into the crowd. It was a brown snake.

Jaxon saw the brown snake. Jaxon screamed, and then, all the crowd screamed.

All the players ran away.

Mikey could not run away because he had a broken leg. The snake slithered toward Mikey. The snake bit him.

The ambulance arrived, but the snake stayed near Mikey. The ambulance driver got out of the ambulance.

The brown snake slithered away when it saw the ambulance driver.

The ambulance driver picked up Mikey and put him in the ambulance.
