

THE FOOTPRINTS

By Jaxon Rothe

Tynen and Jaxon were at their dad's place in Adelaide. They were playing hide n' seek. Jaxon was hiding in the house. Tynen was hiding in the cupboard.

Dad was seeking.

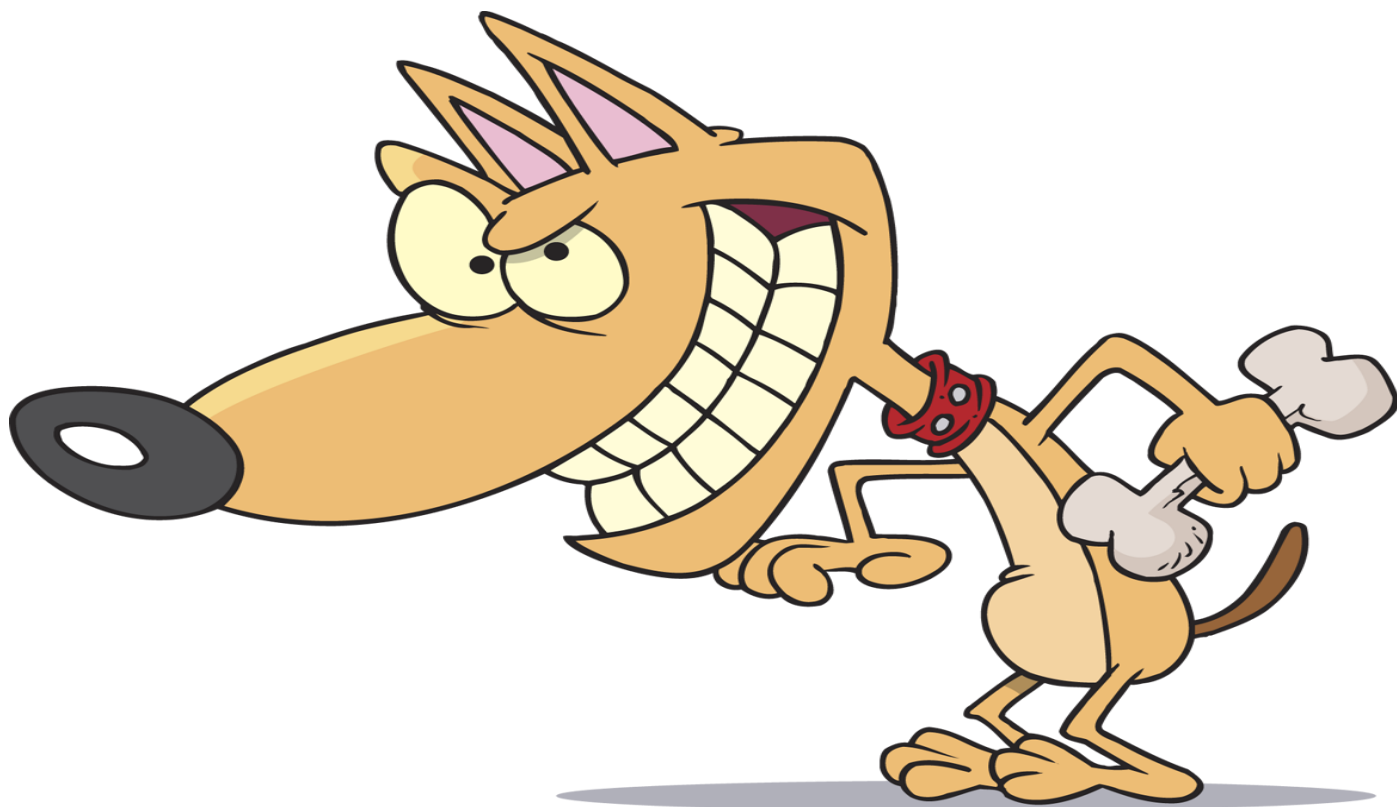

Suddenly, Tynen found something weird in the cupboard. It was a footprint. Tynen was scared, so he opened the cupboard door. He saw more footprints on the floor. Tynen followed the footprints outside. They were black.

All of a sudden, Tynen heard something, and a bush was moving.

Whatever was behind the bush was orange.

The orange thing sneaked out of the bush. It was an animal. It was a dingo. Tynen screamed.

Tynen ran as fast as he could. He ran inside. He ran back into the cupboard.

The dingo followed him. It scratched on the door. There was meat in the cupboard. The dingo opened the cupboard. It ate all the meat and then it left. Tynen yelled.

Dad found Tynen, and Tynen told dad about the dingo in the house.
