GREAT IDEAS

THE BLOB

One day, after school, I opened my bag and there was the Blob. I dropped my bag and screamed out the door and..... He came up to me and said, "I won't hurt you. I'm a nice Blob."

I said, "do you want to live with me?"

The Blob said, "OK!"

I asked the Blob, "what's your name?"

He said, "Bob!"

I said, "that's a nice name."

Then, the door opened. I said, "run and hide! Hide in the washing machine!"

Mum came in. "How was your day at school, Abbey?" she said.

I said, "OK."

"That's good!" mum said. "I'm going to put your washing in the washing machine."

I was terrified, but I didn't say a word.

Mum turned it on.

Bob was getting dizzy in the terrifying washing machine. He needed a drink and he tried to get out.

I ran and let Bob out and hid Bob in the roof, so mum didn't know.

After an hour, when it was dinner time, I got him out of the roof and put him in my shirt.

I sat at the dinner table and I gave him my lettuce.

Top story from Abbey Lawson

One day I made a blob and it came alive. It rolled into mum and dad's room and mum wasn't happy, and neither was dad.

It rolled into the bathroom and it fell into the washing machine.

Mum found it on the washing line. And it dried.

Mum took it down and folded it. She put it in my undies drawer and when I went to get a pair of knickers I screamed.

Mum and Dad ran into the room and said, "what's happened, Mollie?"

I said, "there is a blob in my room!"

SCOOTERS IN THE PLAYGROUND

90% of children in the world fall off scooters all the time. I am certain that everyone knows scooters should not be allowed in the playground at all. You can fall off, break a bone and teachers don't like signing paperwork.

Firstly, you can fall off scooters a lot. Say, if you were going down a hill and the brakes didn't work and you fell off, that wouldn't be fun. There would be a lot of crying going on....

Sensational beginning from Sophie Murray

To begin with, scooters should be banned because people could fall off and break a bone. If you break a bone, the ambulance would have to come back and forward, back and forward.

Also, it would be too much paperwork for Mr Hogan....

Ideas from Hannah Dunmore

One day my friends came over for a sleepover. We told ghost stories and we went to sleep. I woke up and I felt something...

CATS and DOGS

When my cat wants to watch a movie it comes and sits on my lap.

When my cat wants a hug it scratches me.

When my dog is hungry it barks and knocks on the door. If my dog is inside it barks to get out to the food.

When my dog is hungry it wags its tail.

My dog yawns when it is sleepy and I give it a pillow.

Even More GREAT IDEAS

IN THE WASH

Tonight is the night, Mr Hogan comes to meet my parents. I'm new at my school, so he has come to meet me and my parents and to talk about things at my new school.

Dad started to talk about all the boring stuff as usual. Mum got bored and headed into the laundry to do some washing. I followed mum to see if I could help her.

All of a sudden, I see a head pop out of the washing machine. It belongs to a black, slimy animal with blood-shot eyes. I told mum that she should look out, but she must of had her hearing aid right down. I started screaming at her, but before I knew it mum had her arm almost fully in the washing machine. The slimy, black thing grabbed hold of mum's arm. Well, actually mum grabbed its arms and started rocking it, like she does with my baby brother. I rubbed my eyes and when I opened them, it was mum, just rocking my baby brother. My brother wasn't in the washing machine. He was in his cot.

WINTER

The snow is chilly.
The polar bears are sleeping in the cave.
Nothing but clouds in the sky!
Just a day to throw snowballs.

By Jacob Wilson

SUMMER

The sun is blazing.
The dogs are being lazy.
-Not a cloud in the sky!
Just a day to play cricket.

THE MACHINE

Mum was doing the washing and suddenly, BOOM! BOOM!-The washing machine played up. She put her head down to see what was blocking it. Something grabbed her face and dragged her into the washing machine and stuffed her in with the washing.

Dad came home and threw his washing into the washing machine and turned it on.....

Excerpt from Elena Mulham

GROWLING NOISES

*(The Story so far: Olivia is making an Easter hat with her mum)....*My mum was mixing up the paste and we heard the washing machine make growling noises. As we walked into the bathroom, someone or something opened the door for us. We looked around and the washing machine was out of its place and the toilet was where the washing machine should be. We looked at the washing machine. It had eyes, a mouth and even pimples...

Excerpt by Olivia Manzin

BONKERS BARNEY

One day when Barney went to the zoo he saw a gorilla and he was bonkers.

Bam! Bam!

He got bashed, so he kept on walking.

Bam! Bam!-Again!

This time it was monkeys with a banana gun.....

Inventive start from Max Caruso

BARNEY and the ELEPHANT

One day Barney went to the zoo. When he got to the zoo, Barney went bananas.

There was a dark cave and he went inside and he wondered what was in there. He started walking and he stepped on.....the elephant's tail!

The elephant woke up and started to get angry and squashed Barney and stomped on him.

3/4S Limericks

A limerick is a silly poem with five lines. They are often funny or nonsensical. Limericks were made famous by Edward Lear, a famous author who wrote the "Book of Nonsense" in the 1800's. This was an entire book of silly limericks.

The origin of the actual word 'limerick' is obscure, thought it's generally taken to be a reference to the city of Limerick, Ireland. The name is often linked to an earlier form of nonsense verse which was traditionally followed by the refrain that ended "...come all the way up to Limerick?", referring to Limerick, Ireland.

Shyanne S

There once was a school girl named Shy,
On Tuesday she ate apple pie.
She then went outside,
And tried hard to hide,
But couldn't get away from the flies!

Sophie

There once was a silly girl named Soph,
She was hit on the head with a loaf.
She started to laugh,
Quite like a giraffe,
Now she is known as 'Clumsy Oaf'!

Stephanie

There once was a school girl named Steph,
Who had problems with her bad breath.
She tried all the toothpaste,
But boy, what a waste,
In March, the stink finally left!

Harry

There once was a boy named Harry,
His mother asked him to marry,
A girl who liked shoes.
-Who would he choose?
A girl whose name was Gary!

Will

There was a young man named Will,
He went fishing and caught some krill.
It suddenly got dark,
When a mighty big shark,
Made the waters in Deni stay still!

Tom

There once was a smart boy named Tom,
He had a big, black and red bomb.
He liked to play all day,
With his squishy clay.
-He hated the pink and fluffy pom!

How to write a limerick:

The first, second and fifth lines rhyme with each other and have the same number of syllables (typically 8 or 9).

The third and fourth lines rhyme with each other and have the same number of syllables (typically 5 or 6).

Limericks often start with the line "There once was a..." or "There was a..."

3/4s Limericks

Charlee

There once was a girl name Charlee,
Who bought a pink Ferrari.
She thought she was cool,
Stopped going to school,
And got her black belt in karate!

Chloe

There once was a girl called Chloe,
Her real nickname was Bowie.
She had a white cat,
That fancied her hat!
She wished she had a pet joey.

Dominic

There once was a boy named Dominic-et,
A real bowling legend in cricket.
He liked the green clover,
To bowl a maiden over,
And knock over the middle wicket!

Dean

Have you met the weird Deano Mac?
He fell into Santa's big red sack.
He got a big fright,
When he turned on the light,
That is the story of Deano Mac!

April

Have you ever met April Weir?
In the afternoon she does
'D.E.A.R',
To settle her right down,
From the school playground,
She sits down with her small,
friendly peer.

Elena

There once was a girl named Leeni,
-She wore a red bikini.
She went for a dip,
But had a minor slip,
It was lucky that no one seen-y!

Lachlan

There once was a boy called Lach,
Who always played with a block.
Someone came to the door,
He dropped the block on the floor,
So now he plays with a sock!

Beau

There was an old man known as Beau,
He loved to play out in the snow.
The snow made him itch,
He got stuck in a ditch,
And forgot to cook his pizza dough.

Allira

There once was a girl named Allira,
She wanted to be a ballerina.
She danced in her room,
From night until noon,
Her dream was drawing nearer.

Cheyenne F

There once lived a girl named Cheyanne,
Her old grandma's name was Dianne.
She owned a lion,
It was made from iron,
The lion had a job as a fire man.

3/4s Limericks

Eliza

Eliza once liked a green frog,
And also a little brown dog.
She lived in a place,
Where she slept on her face,
Due to the cold, morning fog!

Sam

There once was a cool boy named Sam,
His toast had peanut butter and jam.
It tasted really good,
On a table made of wood,
He played the X-Box while eating ham.

Marion

Marion was a girl in Year Three,
She liked to read books in a tree.
She got stung on the nose,
By a bee she supposed,
And fell all the way out of the tree.

Olivia

There once was a girl called Livi,
-In summer she wore a skivvy.
She was so very hot,
That she started to rot,
And boy! Was she feral and stinky!

Kira

There once was a girl named Kira,
She thought that she was a shearer.
She chopped off sheep heads,
She's no good in sheds,
And took a good look in the mirror!

Jemma

There once was a girl named Jemma,
Who did no such thing as grammar.
She had a big smirk,
Cause she did no work,
In the end it was a dilemma!

Jasmine

Jasmine was a girl in Year Four,
She lived in a tree in Singapore,
She ate Chinese noddles,
Whilst cuddling poodles,
She even ate her noodles raw!

Isaac

Have you met Isaac Suckling?
-In class, he acts like a duckling.
He never does work ,
Miss Smith goes berserk,
Because it looks disgusting!

Hannah

There once was a schoolgirl called Hannah,
-Her friends always called her 'Bananna'.
One dark, spooky night,
A monster she didn't like,
Ran off with her hammer and spanner!

Izzy

There once was a girl called Izzy,
She made all the boys go dizzy,
When she walked down the street,
They would fall at her feet,
Their brains would all go busy.

4/5HB Time Machines

Catriona Vickery

I remember 40 Cynthia Street, Tarcutta, in our old, but up-market house. It smelt like fresh spring days, pollen and clean dogs. It tasted like Starburst, watermelon lollipops. I remember when my family and I went to Canberra so we could go to Questacon. I remember being so embarrassed when I was too scared to go on the 7 metre slide. I got over it because when Steph, my sister, did it, the friction burnt her bum! I remember watching David Attenborough's Life in the Undergrowth in the living room. I remember crying when my babysitter spilt my lollies. My memories are my time machine.

Charlie Dudley

I remember 'Cornalla East' in our beautiful, fashionable, old country house. It smelt like gum trees, spaghetti bolognese, and scrambled eggs. It tasted like pancakes, eggs and yummy breakfasts. I remember crying because my cat died and I saw pictures of it. My memories are my time machine.

4/5HB Time Machines

Jaye Charlton

I remember 'Mauro', Texas QLD, in our old, wooden, creamy coloured house. It smelt like rats and mice all through the house, and tasted like paint and smoke. I remember when my family and I went to Victoria to see our relatives. It was awesome because we got to play a DSI. I remember being so embarrassed when I had to read in front of the class. I got over it because I had to do it a lot. I remember watching 'Harry Potter', in the lounge room with my family. I remember crying because I lost my puppy dog. My memories are my Time Machine.

Tom Cochrane

I remember 'Nioka', in our lovely, big white house. It smelt like fire and tasted like pumpkin soup. I remember when Molly and I went to the wood cutter's hut. It was awesome because we found a huge axe. I remember being so embarrassed when I first learnt how to ride a bike and I crashed into the hedge and fell on the gardener. I got over it because Sarah nearly ran over him the next day. I remember watching 'Jill' in the lounge room with Dad. I remember crying when I got the news that my dog died. My memories are my time machine.

Sam Hughes

I will always remember 'ORO' my current home and farm, in our old weather-board house. It smells like mum's not very well kept garden, and tastes like mum and dad's divine meals. I remember when Grandma, Grandpa, Duncan, Wallace and I went to Melbourne. It was awesome because we went to Science Works. I remember watching 'Gremlins' in the lounge room. It was very sad when Savvy, our old horse, died. I remember crying the night that Savvy died. My memories are my time machine.

Storm Barlow

I remember 8 Billabong Place in our big, new, black and white house. It smelt like brand new paint and tasted like new, rough bricks. I remember when my super, brilliant family and I went to Fiji. It was awesome because we had a big pool behind our motel room. I remember been so embarrassed when I was behaving badly in the plane and mum told some family friends all about it. I remember watching 'GBF' in the family room. I remember crying because a lot of our family pets have died. My memories are my time machine.

Tom McCallum

I remember my house in Hay. It was made out of wood and bricks. It smelt like wood because of the fire and tasted like roast lamb. I remember my cousins and my family went to the Gold Coast. It was awesome except when I got a head ache. I remember running into a pole at Bright. I got over it when everybody else forgot about it too. I remember watching the 'Avengers' at home in the lounge room. I remember crying when my cat Puss Puss died. My memories are my Time Machine.

Sophie Hay

I remember 'Fairfield South' in our extremely cramped house. It smelt like 20 years of spilt food, but I'm immune to the smell. It tasted like coffee which my dad has 50 cups of a day. I remember when my family and I went to Glenrowan. My favourite part was getting a picture in front of a huge Ned Kelly statue. I remember being SO embarrassed when I almost tripped over in the main street and my dad laughed really loud. I remember watching 'How To Train Your Dragon 2' at the cinemas. I remember crying when my mum's horse died. My memories are my time machine.

Jessica Smith

I will always remember living at 367 Hay Road, Deniliquin, in our dusty, rustic house constructed out of mud bricks. It smelt like my mums choc chip cookies and tasted like chocolate. I remember when my family and I went to Indonesia. It was awesome because we went to Water Bomb Park. I remember being so embarrassed when I tripped over. I remember watching 'Doctor Who' in the lounge room on our old couch. I remember crying because my mum's brother died. My memories are my time machine.

Tom Learmonth

I remember Lot 10 Billabong Place. It smelt like vegies and dogs and tasted like cookies and cakes. I remember my family and I went to Fiji. It was awesome because I got an axe. I remember being so embarrassed when I did a big fart. I got over it because I shot lots of rabbits. I remember watching Batman and Robin in Echuca. I remember crying because my hunting dog died. My memories are my time machine.

4/5HB Time Machines

Tabitha Napier

I remember living on my brother's farm 'Romsey' in our 46 year old, wooden house. It smelt like dirt and cow poo and tasted like dusty carpet. I remember when Jane and I went outside and ran over a tiger snake. It was awesome because Jane tripped on the concrete. I remember being so embarrassed when I drove one of the 4 wheelers into the dam, and blamed it on Jane. I got over it because Jane got in trouble for it. I remember watching 'Curious George' in the lounge room on an old, cube shaped TV. I remember laughing when Jane broke her nose. It bled ALL the time! My memories are my time machine.

Storm Duggan

I remember 29 Davidson St in our little, blue house. It smelt like roast chicken and tasted like soup. I remember when dad had surgery and I went to the farm. It was awesome because I spent it with family. I remember being so embarrassed when my undies fell down because they were very big. I remember watching 'Telly Tubbies' and 'Finding Nemo'. I remember crying because mum died. I miss my mum but I liked going back to school to see my friends again. My memories are my time machine.

Charlotte Strong

I will always remember the house that I live in now, 'Willow Park'. We have 6 bedrooms. My bedroom smells like flowers and It tastes like fresh air. I remember when Hannah came over and we went skiing down in the paddock. It was awesome because we went on the car bonnet. I remember crying because my chook died. I got another one and it made me happy again. My memories are my time machine.

Eimear Gogarty

I remember living in 308 River Street, in our weatherboard house. It tasted like food and wood, and smelt the same. I remember when Sophie and I jumped into the river. I remember going to Echuca and having fun. It was awesome especially when we went swimming. I remember being embarrassed when I cried at my Nan's funeral and other people were there. I got over it because Mum was upset too and I wasn't the only one. I remember watching 'Play School' and 'Garfield' at home on the couch. I remember crying because my old dog died. My memories are my time machine.

Phoebe Fitzmaurice

I remember living on the highway, in our brick house which had no carpet. It smelt like bricks. I remember when Zippy, my dog and I walked to our block of land across the road. It was awesome, especially when we saw horses galloping in a horse pen. I remember being so embarrassed when Zippy ran across the road and didn't listen to me. I got over it because Zippy is now fully trained. I remember watching 'Kid vs Kat' in the lounge room. I remember crying when my other dog Banjo, died. My memories are my time machine.
