FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S PEN

What a great little school we have here at Deni North Public! And what a pleasure it is for our teaching and non-teaching staff, to be able to work alongside so many delightful, enthusiastic and good-natured students.

To every student that has tried hard to make the most of their schooling; whether this be in their learning, sporting endeavours or just simply by being a good person, I say, 'well done'. You truly are a total

LEGEND!

-And speaking of legends, I would like to thank our magazine sponsors (listed on the inside back cover), for their sensational support and generosity.

Have a wonderful Xmas everyone!-Seeya 'round!

GREAT IDEAS

ERROL'S APPLE

Errol woke up to the sound of Louise's cooking. It was a bright, warm Sunday, and Errol was looking for an adventure. He showered, got dressed, skimmed a comb through his mullet and beard, and walked with style to his wife.

"Morning love," greeted Louise. "Would you like some pancakes before you go?"

"Nah!" Called Errol. "I'll catch you later dar!" And without saying another word, Errol took a red apple without looking and whacked it into his pocket.

Errol didn't get very far before having the occasional attack of gas (as per usual), and then; wanting to eat something. Suddenly he remembered the apple he packed that morning. As Errol reached down to grab the red apple from his pocket, the apple fell onto the dusty road of death (aka Albert Street), and bounced straight up again and landed in Errol's cupped hands.

Then, Errol noticed something different about the apple. He was so shocked, that he announced to himself that he was colour blind-it wasn't red -it was orange!

"A bouncy, orange apple," whispered an amazed Errol....

Excerpt from Sophie Bashford (Grade 6)

THE KITCHEN COMES ALIVE

"BURP!" The fridge vomited up the double, choc-chip, special ice cream into the microwave, and then the microwave turned on. I mean, who does that?

"And WHY?" I howled.

Then, the fridge and the microwave noticed that I'd been watching.

"Get him!" projected the radio, as it jumped on the scanner and used its aerial as a jousting stick. I'd always hated that radio, and this was just the right excuse to demolish it with my seven- iron golf club.

I swung all the way back, and then I thrust my arms forward, but there was no golf stick. The toaster had grabbed it with its power cord....

Excerpt from Charlie Dudley (Grade 6)

THE GRUNGUNGLES of BLOOD RIVER

We were just going out fishing in the Blood River. Little did we know that when they said, Blood River, they meant it. The river was literally filled with blood. But, we took no notice of the warning signs. We just put the boat in and went out.

10 minutes later, our lines got tangled. We bent over the edge of the boat to untangle them. I heard a growl.

"You really are hungry Bob," I said, noticing that I was hungry as well.

"That wasn't me, Gary!" Bob replied. We both looked up.

Right in front of us, there were two grungungles; the kings of the sea. I could feel their warm breath on my face. I stayed perfectly still. The grungungles looked me in the eye and snarled.

Bob whimpered.

"Shhhh!" I snapped.

Both the grungungles snapped at the boat. All that was left of the boat was the midsection, and Bob and I were in the water.

We floated in the water for about five minutes, and then a seagull came and swooped us up in its beak.

We flew over a sewerage system and the seagull finally realised that we weren't food. It dropped us into the sewerage. We were safe! Smelly, but safe! Now, we just had to get home.

My Dream House 2/3W

When I grow up I want to have a magnificent house. It would be nice if it was in Melbourne. It would have two pools. It would have 28 bathrooms and 4 bedrooms. It would be a 3-storey house with an incredible car.

By Andrew Smith

My Dream House is a mansion with a black pug and a normal pug and living with Jack's 'Septic Eye' and a slave that makes me 2 minute noodles and buys me Fanta.

By Brandon Crisafulli

I live in a world called Paradise. In my Dream House there is a big pool and a playground. Inside it has one big bedroom and a big bathroom and it has a golden tap.

By Lydia Moore

I would like to have a house in Bendigo and I would like a wonderful garden, with a great big tree with a house in it. The house would be blue and green and the door red.

By Amy Weir.

In New York City I would like a house with a small but colourful garden with a lot of flowers and nice green grass. Inside I would like a pink fridge with lots of cutlery in the cupboards.

By Maddison Edwards

I wish I could have a house with four bedrooms and I want a walk-in pantry. The outside of my house would be colourful.

By Bella Gordon

My Dream House would be like Bella's house but bigger. I would have a double garage. It would be a double decker.

By Ava Taylor

My Dream House would have 4 storeys, 5 kitchens and 6 bathrooms. It would have a beautiful backyard with 2 pools and 2 tennis courts, 3 patios and a cricket pitch. Also it would have a small football oval, and my bedroom would be 15 metres long.

By Charlie Paton

My Dream House 2/3W

My Dream House would be in New York. It would have a pool and a purple room, a walk-in wardrobe and a car.

By Kendall Paige

My Dream Station has 10 paddocks and a big wool shed with big yards. It has a big cottage. It has a motor-bike track with big jumps. It has 9,000 hectares.

By Charlie Bull

My Dream House would have 500 storeys with a 7,000 metre pool. I would have a 1980 Transam out the front and I would have a money pad. That is my Dream House.

By Thomas Jachim

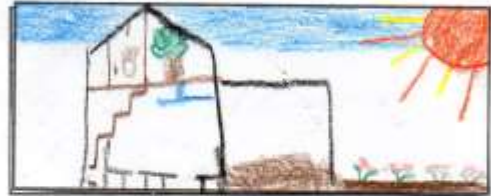

For my Dream House I would love to have a queen-sized water bed with a canopy. I would love to have a hot-water pool. I would also love to have blue stairs with a green rug.

By Eliza Johnstone

My Dream House would have a river in the carport and a jungle upstairs and a shower with fish in it.

By Angus Lawson

At my Dream House I would have a whole backyard of pets. There would be horses, dogs, a calf, piglets, lambs and giraffes with other adorable animals. Some animals that I owned would stay in their normal habitats.

By Ella Marshall

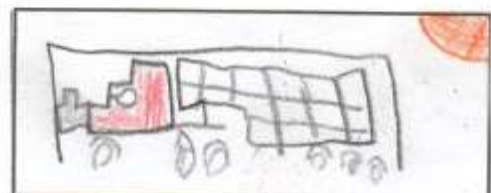

My Dream Farm would be 9000,000,000 cows and sheep. I would buy automatic sheep yards and cow yards. Hopefully I would get my chopper license and a good helipad.

By Henry Knox

My Dream Farm would be 30 thousand acres. I would make up a company that carts crates. I would live in the Northern Territory just out of Darwin.

By Toby Grimwood

My Dream ... 2/3W

My Dream Life has a golden car and a red house and a yellow road, a statue of me made of chocolate and a rainbow that never ends and no school.

By Jacob Wilson

I would like to have a horse. Also when I grow up I would like to win the Melbourne Cup. If I win the Melbourne Cup I would be so happy! After if I win the Melbourne Cup I would like to train horses.

By Ruby Caruso

My Dream Job is to be an actor. I want to act in 'Saw' and 'Terminator'.

By James Blease

When I get older my Dream is to be a police officer to help people in the community and to stop people from getting into trouble.

By Jarren Richards

When I am older I am going to be a body-builder. I also want to be a farmer. If dad lets me I'm going to drive the Torana LJ.

By Cayden Hawley

My Dream Life is as a pilot. I would like to be a crop-duster pilot because they are awesome. There is a company in Deniliquin called 'Fieldair'. I know most of the pilots at 'Fieldair' and the manager.

By Ben Dunmore

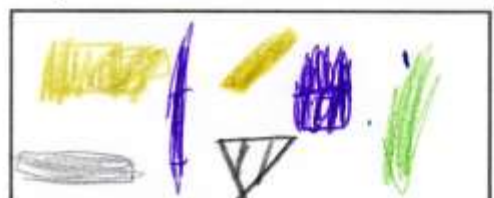

In my Dream Farm I would be a builder. I would volunteer to look after animals, and help homeless people. I would like to be married and have one son and two daughters

By Isaac Behsman

My Dream Life is to have a ute, Landcruiser and a sweet Lamborghini to drive to work. Also I'd love to have an everlasting food supply and have a safe with crystals, emeralds, diamonds and jewels and more stuff.
