

Barbie The Glitter-Cow

Tabitha Napier

2016

Tabitha Napier

Class: 6S

Teacher: Miss Smith

Principal: Mr Hogan

Published: Term 2~Week 6~2016

'm Barbie the Hereford-
FriesanJerseyAngus
glittercow'. And this is my story.
I always wished to have sparkly, glittery and delicious milk. But I don't have to wish anymore.

Today is my very first day on the job! I have to eat lots of glitter grass though, so it makes my milk sparkly-but I do get a bad tummy ache if I eat too much in one mouthful. Oh I'm the luckiest glittercow ever!

Every morning I wake up at precisely 6:94am, eat glittergrass for one hour, then the fairies come and milk me. I know what you're thinking-why do fairies want glittery milk?

Well actually they NEED it to build things, grow things, sell it, make potions etcetera. I love to help as much as I can; it's a glittercow thing I think!

Anyway, you might be thinking that I'm the only 'glitcow'.

Well actually, there is something like 99...4012...1003457, I got it! 1,248,691! And nooo, it is not over crowded! In fact it's quite spacious. We girls have our own fields, well sort of, 10 'glitcows' to a field.

I know I say 'fields' but there is no, no um oh, what is the normal word for it? Oh that fency thingamajig! You know! Those uptown, fancy, sophisticated things that keep animals in the right place. We just know where to stay like good girls.

Today, all the fairies glittery milk was gone! I bet those ugly, jealous, horribly smelling ogres took it!

They have attempted it once before, but luckily they didn't get away with it. If it is them this time, they won't get away with it inevitably!

Twinkle-my-toes, I'm glad we have good guards and security! Getting back to the topic, the fact that the fairies have no glitter milk, means that they can't renew security potions every day, fix broken things or sell it for couch (which I think is money in the normal world). So, we will have no couch to buy glitter grass, which means we won't be able to produce 'glitmilk' anymore, therefore once again we can't fix, sell or make ANYTHING!!! Tragic, I tell you, absolutely tragic! I don't know what we're going to do!

It has been 7 light days since the ogres took the glitmilk- and yes it was definitely 100% the ogres. We have solid proof.

Anyway let's not get into detail. For once there was nothing to fix and we had spare security potions available, so we sold the glitmilk and got LOTS of couch for it. With the couch we bought more glitter-grass. We are back in business! I have also found time in my days to better my milk- by walking! We glittercows usually only sleep or stand all day while eating, waiting for the fairies to milk us.

Hi, I'm Tabitha Napier. I am 12 years old and my birthday is on the 25th of August. I have many young cousins who are girls– thinking of them made me come up with my story. They all love animals and love to play with the fairy dress-ups! My family own 5 farms, two of which are dairy farms– even though we hold our cattle on all five properties. We have 1 dog, 2 cats, 2 horses and LOTS and LOTS of cows (which is why the main character is a cow!). I hope you enjoyed my story and will share it with your friends!

What they said about

'Barbie the Glittercow'

'Nothing more dangerous than a cow with glitter in its milk.' (Bashie- Author of 'Lola' and 'Fluffy Saves The Day')

'Very special- made me cry.' (Mr Hogan)

'I wish my cows made sparkly milk- I'd be rich!' (Horris the farmer)

'What a story- I love cows!' (Sophie W- Author of 'The Portable Toilet Portal')

'I think Barbie is a kind cow.' (Casper the Crocodile)