

The UNISHADONKEYCOW

By: Chloe Paton

2016

Author: Chloe Paton

Class:6S

Teacher: Miss Smith

Principal: Mr Hogan

Published: Semester 1, 2016

Have you seen the Unishadonkeycow (UDC) before? No I didn't think so. Well here is a story you will never forget. The Unishadonkeycow (UDC) is a very different animal, it's part donkey, cow, unicorn and shark! The unishaddonkeycow (UDC) has lost it's unicorn horn and the only way to get it back is to defeat 'The Rumour' (a tadpole like animal with the jaws of a shark and legs like a frog).

Luckily for unishaddonkeycow, he has a friend called, Old Wisely to help him. Old Wisely is the oldest man in the world. To be exact, he is 199 years old!

Well, there is going to have to be a miracle to see if these two powerful creatures can defeat 'The Rumour'!

One day, the UDC was flying or walking, but while he was flying, a camera flew up his nose. He sneezed and he sneezed, but nothing came out, so he kept on flying.

A week later, the UDC was acting really weird and didn't really feel well. Old Wisely came to check on the UDC.

Old Wisely diagnosed the UDC.

“You have a bad case of, ‘Camera Up A Nose Syndrome’.”

A week later, UDC had recovered and he and Old Wisely set off for the palace, where the RUMOUR lives.

At the palace, they saw goblins, sharks and a dirty, old, smelly looking creature. The creature was a Feet Gobbler.

“What a place!” said the UDC. Old Wisely was feeling scared, not scared for himself; but for the unishadonkeycow. The UDC was not at all scared; all he had to do was defeat the Rumour.

All of a sudden the Rumour appeared from out of the front entrance of the palace. All the people that were gathered looked astonished.

“Welcome everyone!” screamed the commentator into his microphone. “This is the 1st ever duel between unishadonkeycow and the Rumour. The first duel is, painting a portrait of your partners.”

“What! That’s easy. I have been practicing,” said ‘the Rumour’.

“Take your marks... “ yelled the commentator.
“GO!”

UDC was off and painting! By the time UDC had put a blob of paint on his canvas, the Rumour had already finished, and it was a masterpiece! UDC looked terrible.

“And the Rumour wins,” yelled the commentator! “The second duel is a flying race. You have to race around the palace twice; whoever wins is the overall winner of the challenges.”

The unishaddonkeycow and Old Wisely were sure to lose this duel with the Rumour!

“Take your marks... GO!”

The UDC was off with a flash. In the snap of a finger, he was... DONE! In the fastest time ever!

The flying race was worth double points.

The unishaddonkeycow had won.

By winning the Rumour no longer existed!

2 Weeks Later.....

Since they had defeated the Rumour, there was no such thing as the Rumour anymore and UDC had retrieved his lost horn.

With a spanking, new horn on UDC's head,
Old Wisely renamed him,

UnishaHORSEcow!

Author Report

Hi I am Chloe Jane Paton. I attend Deniliquin North Public School. My favourite things to do are: being with friends and playing bucket loads of sport . My teacher this year is Miss Smith. This year I have achieved being a being a squad to Western Riverina soccer and basketball, Riverina swimming and have just made the 2016 Riverina Netball team! I am a proud prefect at D.N.P.S.

Unishadonkeycow and Old Wisely have a test up there sleeves! Will they win, lose or die?

What they said about my book...

“Old Wisely is the oldest man in the world.
What a man!” (Mr Hogan)

“My arm was too sore from turning the pages.
I couldn't even bowl!” (Shane Warne)

“I was at the edge of my weightlifter!”
(Sporty Spice)